Notice of Fault and Opportunity to Cure

Notice to agent is notice to principal, notice to principal is notice to agent

Statement of facts

On or about 28th October 2015, you, the Queen, received an Affidavit by recorded mail delivery from me, David Shayler the Christ, for your attention.

As I stated under sworn oath in paragraph 176 of above stated Affidavit:

Your failure to provide me with a verified rebuttal to this affidavit point-by-point no later than ten (10) days from the date of issuance, or request additional time to comply, will comprise you, the Queen's agreement with and confession of all facts herein, in perpetuity, the said confession being res judicata and stare decisis.

As of the 10th November 2015, you have not responded to the above stated Affidavit, as required.

As an operation of law you have created a fault by dishonor of Affidavit. You are therefore at fault in this matter.

Opportunity to cure

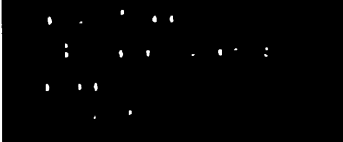

In the event that your failure to respond to the above stated Affidavit was an oversight, mistake or otherwise unintentional, I, David Shayler the Christ as Affiant, grant you the Queen, also known as Elizabeth Windsor, as Respondent three (3) days, exclusive of the day of receipt, to cure the fault.

Failure to cure will constitute, as an operation of law, your final admission and agreement to all statements and claims made by affiant through tacit procuration pertaining to my above stated Affidavit dated 26th October 2015 and the whole matter shall be deemed res judicata and stare decisis.

Your response must be served on me the Affiant exactly as provided below and using registered and traceable mail service:
